Hi Rene,

OK, I've cancelled the delivery booking for the light bulbs.

For A30411, yes we do have big shipment coming 1st week of November. However, some of our clients have placed back orders before you, and then we'll have only 1050 pcs remaining.

So please confirm asap so that I can reserve 1000 pcs for you. Or the next shipment will be around end of Nov / early December.

Kindly advise. Thank you!

Hi Janice,

Sorry I was away and did not see these emails.

Can you please cancel the light bulbs.

I know you will be getting stock of the A30411 Base on Nov 4. How many will you be getting?

I just want to know because I am planning on switching our current product to these. We go through about 1000 a month and want to make sure we have enough.
